Herbalife was featured in an article on the success of the company in the Investor's Business Daily, "Nutritional Supplement Seller Feeling Much More Fit These Days" (June 19, 2006 edition of investors.com). Our gains in sales and earnings, sports sponsorships, product launches including Liftoff™ and NouriFusion®, and other company developments were covered.

The article quoted Herbalife CEO Michael O. Johnson about the strength of our Independent Distributor network. "Herbalife relies on its Distributors and their personal stories. 'Some of our (people) have lost 10 to as much as 100 pounds,' Johnson said. "That Distributor can say, 'It worked for me and was fabulous. I replaced a meal with a shake.' That's extremely compelling."
